

Small Systems Design Associates

Please enter today's date:

Please give us a nick name, or a name you commonly use on the internet.

Please enter your email address:

What is the primary IT system or computer problem you are concerned about:

- I don't have a system or computer problem
- My computer is slow, and often freezes up
- I can't get to the internet from my computer
- Internet browsing is too slow on my computer
- Internet downloads are too slow on my computer
- I can't print from my computer
- I can't find the files I have created on my computer

What is the primary Media problem you are concerned about:

- I don't have a media problem
- I need help with professional quality photography
- I need help with professional quality videography
- I need help with professional quality visual artwork
- I need help with professional quality sound
- I need help with media placement, or presentation

What is the primary Design problem you are concerned about:

- I don't have a design problem
- I need help setting up a production and scheduling system for a creative product
- I need to set up a design process for media production
- I need to set up a design process for IT app development
- I need to set up a design process for finding and tracking work flow problems

Choice 1

If you can't find your problem stated above, please use this space to briefly (1,000 characters, max) describe your concern, or other reason for contacting us:

Thank you. If we have your email we will contact you within two days.